Executive Director's Report

Item 7 - Appointment to Regional Boards and Call for Applications

The Nominating Committee is scheduled to review the applications received and make a recommendation on appointments. Please see the Nominating Committee agenda packet for additional information, including applications and the listing of current regional board vacancies.

RECOMMENDATION - Consider the Nominating Committee's recommendations and make appointments to the above-listed regional board(s).

Presentation Summaries and Speaker's Bio:

Presentation No. 1 - Homelessness Among Older Adults: Causes, Consequences and Solutions. Dr. Kushel will present findings from the ongoing Health Outcomes of People Experiencing Homelessness in Older Middle age (HOPE HOME) study, a longitudinal study of homeless adults age 50 and over that has been ongoing in Oakland since 2013.

Presenters:

Margot Kushel, MD is a Professor of Medicine at University of California San Francisco. She is the Division Chief and Director of the UCSF Center for Vulnerable Populations and Director of the UCSF Benioff Homelessness and Housing Initiative. She is a practicing general internist at Zuckerberg San Francisco General Hospital. Margot's research focuses on the causes and consequences of homelessness and housing instability, with the goal of preventing and ending homelessness and ameliorating the effects of homelessness and housing instability on health. She speaks at a local, state and national level about issues of homelessness, and frequently provides testimony to legislative bodies. Twitter: @mkushel

Ned Resnikoff, MPP is the Policy Manager at the BHHI. Mr. Resnikoff is a former journalist who received his Masters in Public Policy from UC Berkeley. He was an analyst in the California Legislative Affairs Office prior to joining UCSF BHHI as their policy manager. Twitter: @resnikoff

Presentation No. 2 - The Residents of Oversized Vehicles in Oakland: What would meet their needs. Researchers at the Benioff Homelessness and Housing Initiative conducted qualitative research with residents of oversized vehicles to determine who are residents of oversized vehicles; what are their housing preferences and barriers; and what services do they use and need.

Presenters:

Kelly Knight, PhD Professor and Vice Chair of Department of Humanities and Social Sciences at UCSF and Faculty Director of Qualitative Research at UCSF BHHI. Dr. Knight received her PhD in anthropology from UCSF. Dr. Knight studies homelessness and substance use. She is the author Addicted. Pregnant. Poor and the Principal investigator of several NIH studies of pain and opioid use and misuse in marginalized populations. She is a co-investigator on the HOPE HOME Study of older homeless adults and was the co-Principal Investigator of the Family Assisted Housing Study, which examined older homeless adults relationships and housing with family members. Dr. Knight was the Senior Investigator on the Residents of Oversized Vehicles in Oakland study. Twitter @kellyrayknight

Graham Pruss, PhD is a Post-Doctoral Scholar at UCSF BHHI. He is an ethnoarcheologist, who earned his PhD at the University of Washington. Dr. Pruss mixes participatory, qualitative, and quantitative methods to better inform policy makers and convey complex research to non-academic audiences. Graham was inspired to focus on the habitation of vehicles in public space by extensive travel with his family in vehicles during his childhood and close relationships with long-term vehicle residents throughout his life. He brings diverse perspectives to research on housing adaptation and instability, as a former social service outreach specialist for vehicle residents (2013-2015) and previous recipient of social welfare programs as a homeless youth and teen parent in the 1990s.
